Welcome!

Thank you for your interest in Kansas Child Care Training Opportunities' CDA Scholarship. KCCTO is committed to providing assistance to early childhood professionals seeking to further their knowledge and understanding of quality early childhood practices. In particular, KCCTO is pleased to provide Kansas residents with the opportunity to apply for our CDA scholarship. This scholarship covers the Council for Professional Recognition's $425 CDA application fee.

In addition to completing this application, supplementary materials are required. A brief checklist is included below. Additional information for each item can be found within the application.

Application Materials Checklist:

- A copy of your current KDHE license
- Proof of in-service training/college credit hours completed (120 hours)
- Reflective Statements
- References

We look forward to assisting you on your professional journey!

Sincerely,

KCCTO Staff
